ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE

Whoever Wishes To Be Great Among You Will Be Your Servant – The request of the sons of Zebedee, James and John, to be seated one on each side of Jesus when he reigns in glory sets off a firestorm among the Apostles. They argue about who is the greatest and are quickly focused on who has more power and authority than the others. Jesus reminds them that, while this may be the way of the world, they must be different. Whatever power and authority is theirs is given to them by God and must be used for the service of others. As the implementation of On Mission for The Church Alive! begins we will be looking to discover what our parish groupings need to best serve the faithful of our parishes and the communities where we live. We all love our parishes, but our love for Christ and the Church as a whole is even stronger. It may be a challenge to put aside what we are familiar with for the sake of the good of all, but we are called to trust in God’s guidance as he works to build up the Church. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

From the Administrator

I write this notice on October 15, my first day on the job as administrator of On Mission for The Church Alive! Grouping 330: Holy Trinity, St. John of God, and St. Malachy Parishes. That's a bit awkward, so I've chosen to refer to us all informally as RockKenRo Catholics (for the ROCKs, KENnedy Township, and RObinson Township).

One early priority is to get to know you. Already on paper you've been introduced to the new clergy: Fr. Alan Morris, Fr. Michael Ruffalo, Fr. Bob Zajdel, Dcn. Tim Killmeyer, and I, in addition to the retired RockKenRo priests (who are staying in place). Now we'll start to see each other at Masses and other events. You'll also meet Benito Stallings (pictured), an intern in ministry who'll be with us until May, when he finishes his Master of Divinity degree.

You also know I've convened a "Grouping Executive Council" to advise me on RockKenRo: Tom Adams, Rosemary Corsetti, Tim Davis, Linda Gomulka, Dave Hess, Joe Maggi, and Dr. Bill Stropkaj. I was very proud of them last Wednesday as they and we clergymen passionately discussed how best to move the grouping forward.

Maybe Tim put it best: "From the start, people will want to know the plan." The short answer: For RockKenRo, it's not obvious what the plan should be. We know we've got to be more On Mission!, but we'll have to take some time to think and talk about how to do that collectively as RockKenRo and not merely as three separate parishes.

Among other things, that means I'll need advice beyond my new executive council. I'll be meeting with the pastoral and finance councils of each parish and, where these councils have some empty seats, I'll need to fill them. In particular, I invite the faithful of St. John of God Parish to meet me on Thursday, November 1, after the 6:30 Mass at St. Mary's, to talk about who from St. John of God might advise me. But no one is shut out: If you think there's something I or one of the clergymen or advisors need to know, please write a note and get it to us!

Meanwhile, inasmuch as I've been asked several questions about money, please allow me to reassure you: Everything is in its own bucket. Each parish's property remains its own, and donations go only to the parish for which they are marked, no matter which parish they arrive at. Expenses common to all parishes of RockKenRo, such as clergy costs, will be split according to a formula:

50% Holy Trinity

20% St. John of God

30% St. Malachy

Earmarked monies in reserve, such as those from capital campaigns, will be used only for the originally designated purposes, or (if this is now outdated or impractical) there will be a formal and public process for considering any alternative purpose.

Fire Safety Month at HTS

City of Pittsburgh Firefighter Jake Schnelbach visited 1st grade as part of Fire Safety Month. Mr. Schnelbach has been a firefighter at Station 4 for the past three years and is a Holy Trinity School graduate. He presented fire safety rules and explained the gear he uses to fight fires. He wanted to make sure the students were comfortable seeing him dressed in his full safety gear, so that they would not be afraid if they ever had to have a firefighter help them in their homes. He made sure that the children understand that firefighters work to help others. He passed out fire safety coloring books and gave them all "Junior Firefighter Badges." Mr. Schnelbach attended Holy Trinity School from Kindergarten through 8th grade, graduating in 2008. His aunt, Eleanor Brown, taught at our school for over 35 years. We are so honored to have him visit! The 1st grade class is pictured with Firefighter Schnelbach.

Our Preschool classrooms also learned about fire safety through visits from the Moon Run Fire Department. The Preschool students had the chance to climb through a real fire truck, pet the service fire dog, and squirt a fire hose! The firefighters brought their equipment and also an ambulance for the children to see. Each preschool child received a fire helmet.
